

Joint Open Europe / IMFS / Europolis conference

The role of the ECB in the crisis

Friday, 11 November 2011, 9 am - 12.30 pm
Haus am Dom, Domplatz 3, 60311 Frankfurt am Main

Programme

I.

“Has the ECB acted within its mandate in this crisis?”

(9 - 10.30 am)

with

Dr. Antonio Sáinz de Vicuña

European Central Bank, General Counsel
European System of Central Banks (ESCB), Chairman of the Legal Committee (LEGCO)

Professor Dr. Markus C. Kerber

Technical University of Berlin, Professor in EU competition law, leader of the study centre Europolis

II.

“Should the ECB become the eurozone’s lender of last resort?”

(11 am - 12.30 am)

with

Dr. Ignazio Angeloni

European Central Bank, Adviser to the Executive Board, Visiting Fellow at Bruegel

Professor Dr. Dr. h.c. Helmut Siekmann

Endowed Chair of Money, Currency and Central Bank Law at the Institute for Monetary and Financial Stability

Raoul Ruparel

Head of Economic Research, Open Europe

The debate will be chaired by Stephan Balling, Börsenzeitung

Places are limited. If you wish to attend, please RSVP to Pieter Cleppe on pieter@openeurope.org.uk or call 00 32 477 68 46 08