

IMFS
Conference on Monetary and Financial Stability 2013
Economic and Legal Limits of Central Banking

26 November 2013, 8.45 am – 4.00 pm

Goethe University Frankfurt

Renate-von-Metzler-Saal, Casino, Campus Westend

Program

Time	Topics/Speakers
8.45 – 9.00 am	Welcome Rainer Klump, Vice-President, Goethe University Frankfurt Hermann Remsperger, Chairman, Stiftung Geld und Wahrung
9.00 – 10.30 am	The fundamental connection between monetary policy and fiscal policy – and its implications Chair: Tobias Troger, Goethe University Frankfurt Speakers: Christoph Degenhart, Constitutional Court of the Free State of Saxony and Leipzig University Ludger Schuknecht, German Ministry of Finance Harald Uhlig, University of Chicago
10.30 - 11.00 am	Coffee break
11.00 – 12.30 pm	Unconventional policy measures and monetary policy in the world of a “new normal”: Do we need to reconsider existing monetary policy frameworks? Chair: Peter Tillmann, Giessen University and IMFS Speakers: Ricardo Reis, Columbia University Helmut Siekmann, Goethe University Frankfurt and IMFS Volker Wieland, Goethe University Frankfurt and IMFS
12.30 – 1.30 pm	Lunch
1.30 – 2.00 pm	Keynote speech Yves Mersch, Member of the Executive Board of the European Central Bank Moderation: Gunter Beck, University of Siegen and IMFS
2.00 – 3.30 pm	The role of central banks in ensuring financial stability Chair: Tobias Troger, Goethe University Frankfurt Speakers: Anil Kashyap, University of Chicago Booth School of Business Vikrant Vig, London Business School Chiara Zilioli, European Central Bank
3.30 – 4.00 pm	Wrap up and Coffee